EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND AND BUSINESS EXPERIENCE

Thomas Philipp, ChFC®, CLU®, CFP®

Born in 1973, Thomas graduated from the University of Texas at Arlington in 1996 with a Bachelor's of Science degree in Business Administration. Prior to joining Geneos Wealth Management in 2013, Thomas was both a Registered Representative and Investment Advisor Representative with Hornor, Townsend & Kent, Inc. from 2004-2013.

ChFC®

Chartered Financial Consultant® (ChFC®) is a designation awarded by The American College, a non-profit educator with the highest level of academic accreditation, requires nine college-level courses. Average study time to earn the ChFC® exceeds 450 hours. Required courses cover extensive education and application training in financial planning, income taxation, investments, and estate and retirement planning. Additional electives are chosen from such topics as macroeconomics, financial decisions for retirement, and executive compensation. ChFC® designees must meet experience requirements and adhere to continuing education and ethical standards.

CLU®

Chartered Life Underwriter® (CLU®) is a designation in risk management for advisors. Designees have completed eight or more college-level courses representing an average study time of 400 hours. Topics for required courses include insurance and financial planning, life insurance law, estate planning, and planning for business owners and professionals. Elective courses include such advanced topics as income taxes, group benefits, retirement planning, and health insurance. CLU® designees must meet experience and continuing education requirements and must adhere to a high ethical standard. The mark is awarded by The American College, a non-profit educator with the top level of academic accreditation.

CFP®

Certified Financial Planner™ (CFP®) and certification marks are financial planning credentials awarded by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. (CFP® Board) to individuals who meet its education, examination, work experience and ethics requirements. Eligible candidates must have at least a bachelor's degree (or its equivalent) in any discipline from an accredited college or university in order to obtain a CFP® certification. The candidate also must pass an examination, have three years of personal financial planning experience, and meet the CFP Board's ethical requirements. To maintain the certification, the CFP® Board requires individuals to complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years and renew an agreement to be bound by its Standards of Professional Conduct.

DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Thomas Philipp has no disciplinary information to disclose.

OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Thomas Philipp is also a registered representative of Geneos in its capacity as a broker-dealer. If you elect to have Thomas Philipp implement the advice provided as part of the financial planning or consulting services, this is done in his separate capacity as a registered representative of a broker-dealer. Thomas Philipp could receive fees for the advice and could also receive commissions, including 12b-1, annual marketing and distribution fees for implementing the recommendations in this separate capacity. It may provide incentive to recommend investment products based on the compensation received, rather than on your needs. You are not obligated to implement the advice provided by Thomas Philipp or to implement transactions through us as a broker-dealer. You are free to select any broker-dealer or registered representative to implement the recommendations provided by Thomas Philipp.

Thomas Philipp is also an independently licensed insurance agent. If you elect to purchase insurance products through Thomas Philipp in this separate capacity, he may earn commissions. Thomas Philipp could receive fees for the advice and also receive commissions for implementing insurance transactions. You are not obligated to implement the advice provided by Thomas Philipp or to implement transactions through him in his separate capacity as an insurance agent.

If you elect to implement Thomas Philipp's advice, he may waive or reduce the financial planning or consulting fees as a result of asset management fees, securities commissions and/or insurance commissions that he may receive in his separate capacities.

ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

Geneos has established relationships with other, non-affiliated investment advisors through which we will act as a solicitor and Thomas Philipp may refer you to the other investment advisors' management programs. When acting in this solicitor capacity, we receive a portion of the fee you pay to the other investment advisors.

When referring clients to third party money managers, Geneos receives a portion of the fees generated from the referral. Since each money manager has a separate agreement with Geneos, each agreement will have a different percentage of the fee paid to us. That fee is shared with your representative. This may provide an incentive for representatives to recommend one money manager over another one.

Certain product sponsors may provide Thomas Philipp with other economic benefits as a result of him or her recommending or selling the product sponsors' investments. The economic benefits he receives from product sponsors can include, but are not limited to, financial assistance or the sponsorship of conferences and educational sessions, marketing support, incentive awards, payment of travel expenses, and tools to assist him in providing various services to clients.
